

3.312"
PictureSize

The diagram shows a large circle representing the button. Inside it is a smaller dashed circle representing the picture size. A vertical double-headed arrow indicates the diameter of this dashed circle. The text '3.312" PictureSize' is centered within this dashed circle. To the right of the top-left circle is the top-right circle, and below the top-left circle is the bottom-left circle. The central circle is positioned between the top-left and bottom-left circles, and between the top-right and bottom-right circles. A vertical double-headed arrow on the right side of the central circle indicates its diameter, which is labeled as 4.000" Cut Line.
